Improved Life For Senior Pets

As our dogs and cats age, subtle changes to their health and vitality take place. Just like us, they begin to suffer from many types of physical ailments, most notably joint problems. Often, it is hard to tell if our pets are hurting, because they don't complain. But if unattended, the problems will only get worse. Local entrepreneur Jamie Cobb has joined forces with Liquid BioCell® Pet to help your pets with joint problems.

Liquid BioCell® Pet is the cutting-edge, veterinarian-approved joint health solution for active senior pets. Exclusively formulated with Liquid BioCell®, clinically shown to improve mobility, reduce discomfort and improve joint health, while promoting healthy skin and a shiny coat.

The advanced, fast-acting, liquid delivery system is highly effective in maintaining the structure, function and flexibility of your pets' joints, muscles and connective tissues, while easing discomfort associated with normal daily exercise or active lifestyles.

Let's keep your pets running, jumping and playing as long as we can!
